INSPECTION AT MARSHFIELD.

Capt. Ballard Found K. of P. Company in Excellent Shape.

Marshfield, March 9.—The inspection of Marshfield company, no. 12, 1st Vermont U. R. Knights of Pythias, occurred here Wednesday evening, March 6. Capt. N. B. Ballard of Barre company, No. 6, was inspecting officer. The meeting opened in regular form in Castle hall, Capt. Ballard inspected the books of recorder and treasurer, and found them O. K. The company then adjourned to Folsom's hall, where they gave an exhibition of their sword and shield drill. Capt. Ballard coached them, also inspected uniforms and equipment. After returning to Castle hall, Capt. Ballard made many suggestions of instruction and profit; in his remarks he stated that he expected to find a good company, but was surprised to find an extra good company, under the command of one of the best captains on record. He complimented the company on having so efficient a captain, and in turn complimented the captain on the accuracy of his company.

The regular installation of officers by Capt. Ballard followed; the following officers being elected for the coming year: Captain, E. C. Pickett; first lieutenant, H. G. Townsend; second lieutenant, A. W. Cole; sergeant, E. J. Morrill; recorder, W. O. Southwick; treasurer, E. L. Spencer; chaplain, J. B. Pike; sentinel, H. D. B. Dwinell; guard, E. J. Morrill.

The company then repaired to hotel Spencer, where a banquet was prepared. Menu, oysters, sliced ham, pickles, cabbage salad, best salad, olives, cottage cheese, hot rolls, fig, date, raisin, chocolate and nut cake; mince, custard and chocolate pies; oranges, nuts, ice cream, coffee and tea. Much interest was manifested in the company, one member driving seventeen miles to attend the inspection, and many have expressed their desire to join the ranks the coming year. Figures were passed and the company broke ranks about 1 o'clock a. m., wishing many happy returns of the occasion.

EMPEROR WILLIAM CARRIES A BOQUET TO MRS. TOWER.

Kaiser Also Gives Our Ambassador's Children a Lot of Toys.

Bedlin, March 9.—Emperor William carried a bouquet of roses and lilies to the American embassy last night, and presented it to Mrs. Tower, the wife of the ambassador.

His majesty also asked to see Mr. and Mrs. Tower's two little daughters; gave them a lot of toys, and talked with them for some time about their dogs and games.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

We stand and stare as we see the glaring headline and our thoughts quickly wander back to the days of yore—days when the gifted authoress, Harriet Beecher Stowe, first favored us with the immortal work. The young, the old, the gay, the careless, all at different times have heard or seen the beautiful play depicted on the stage, or have pursued the pages of the book. The heart-interests is so intense that a magnetic influence seems to assert itself at times and draw us again within the portals of the playhouse to witness those thrilling scenes of Anti-Bellum days, and we can safely prophesy that its memory and action will linger with us, at it has done with past generations affording amusement, pleasure, pathos and instruction for young and old alike. A grand and stupendous production of this immortal play will be given by Stowe's big double company at the opera house on Monday night, a novel feature that has been added is the marvelous street parade, which will be given on the principal streets at noon. This parade is, without doubt, the largest ever attempted by any attraction playing theatres, and from past criticism and press comment, we feel safe in echoing the words of Manager Leon W. Washburn: "It beats a circus." Tickets now selling.

"COQUE DE ROACH" THE LATEST SHADE IN BROWN.

Formally Adopted at Meeting of National Milliners' Association.

Chicago, March 9.—Brown being the popular color of the present season, Mme. Grunberg, it developed at last night's meeting of the National Milliners' association, has given the world a new shade with a novel name. It is "Coque de Roach," and is said by experts to be the hue of the adolescent cockroach, or domestic water bug. Other colors which the madame advocates are tan, champagne drab, orange, and old gold. "Coque de Roach" shade found immediate favor and was adopted.

Very few men were admitted at the session, but an ultimatum was issued to them to call a woman's hat a "bonnet" in gross error and not allowed in polite society.

EAST BARRE.

The committee on entertainment for the Easter concert to be given in the church met last evening at the home of Mrs. W. C. Nye. A few others gathered also, and a delightful social time was enjoyed by all.

The regular services will be held in the church here, conducted by Rev. W. R. Stewart. In the morning the sacrament will be administered. There will be a special collection taken at the morning service which will go to the two societies which stand back of Mr. Stewart. A generous response is looked for.

On Wednesday afternoon a delightful surprise was given Mrs. Levi Sargent, when a number of friends gathered to wish her many happy returns of her birthday. Her daughter, Mrs. David Pittsley, and her friends, Mrs. Butler, served the refreshments. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all the guests.

In the intermediate room in East Barre graded school, the teacher reports Leda Mae Magoon and Harold Vaughn with no marks for the year. Carlos Magoon, Alfred Davis and Arthur Dislette were absent during the winter term, and "Trissie Bianchi, Henry Dislette, Nettie Bixby, Harold Taylor and Lindsay McArthur were absent only one half-day during the winter term.

Birthday surprises are the order of the day. Dora Pittsley started this "ball a-rolling," and the result was the gathering of about twenty-five young people at the home of Chester Sargent to help him celebrate his thirteenth birthday. Games were enjoyed and after refreshments were served by the host's genial mother, they departed with expressions of pleasure at the good time they had had.

NO ACTION ON SUFFRAGE

Does Not Reach a Vote in Commons

CHANCES BILL DOUBTFUL

The Police Guard the Entrance to the House—Suffragists Active in Rallying the Liberal Vote.

London, March 9.—The "woman's enfranchisement bill," which came up for its second reading in the House of Commons yesterday, and which was introduced by Mr. Dickinson, Liberal, although practically identical with the measure introduced by Mr. Keir Hardie, Socialist, last year, has evoked far greater general interest. The bill simply provides that women shall have the franchise on the same terms upon which it is now granted to men.

The debate was a repetition of the familiar arguments for and against female suffrage, and there was a complete divergence from the usual party lines, the rejection of the bill being moved by Mr. Whitbread (Liberal), another opponent being Mr. Cromer, also a Liberal, while both Conservatives and members of the Labor party were found among its supporters. An attempt was made to close the discussion, but the speaker declined to accept the motion, and the opponents of the bill held the floor until 3 p. m., when the sitting was closed automatically. They thus won the day, as this practically kills the bill for the present session.

U. S. TO SMASH HARRIMAN GRIP

On Southern Pacific—Commerce Commission to Recommend Divorce of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific.

New York, March 9.—That the Interstate Commerce Commission will recommend the bringing of action by the government to compel the Union Pacific Railroad company to dispose of the Southern Pacific stock is believed in high quarters in Wall street. This proposed move is an outcome of the recent Union Pacific investigation, during which a particular effort was made by the Federal attorneys to bring forth evidence tending to show that the ownership of the Southern Pacific controlled by the Union Pacific was held contrary to the interstate commerce laws.

The Harriman interests are, it is said, cognizant of this intention on the part of the government to attempt to compel the Union Pacific to relinquish any part of its other investment holdings is a matter of general speculation. It is regarded as quite probable that similar recommendations will be made to compel the company to dispose of stocks in other roads which may be considered in the slightest degree competitive lines.

Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission this afternoon refused to confirm the Wall street report of the suit against the Harriman interests.

"We have set April 4 for the taking of further testimony," said Chairman Knapp, "and we take no decision on action previous to that time. What our course will be after that I'm not at liberty to state."

EVARTS ARRANGES MEETING.

The President Glad to Meet Mr. Harriman.

Washington, D. C., March 9.—President Roosevelt has not yet made any engagement for an interview with E. H. Harriman, it was said at the White House yesterday, but he will be glad to see him at any time he comes to Washington.

Some days ago Maxwell Evarts, one of Mr. Harriman's counsel, was at the White House, and in response to inquiries on the subject as to whether the president would see Mr. Harriman, he was given to understand that he would at any time.

Battle for Life

When Despair Strives all that was left, He Seemed and Finally Wins Health.

The experience of R. H. Lewis of 6 Second street, Gloversville, N. Y., who was given up by his doctors to die of consumption, and whose pastor and friends had lost all hope, is given for the benefit of all who are tending toward consumptive.

Mr. Lewis lost 25 pounds in three months, had hemorrhages, and a consultation of physicians gave the verdict that he had consumption and one lung was nearly gone, and he returned from visits to the Adirondack and Catskill mountains so weak that he could hardly get about. It was at this stage that he began to take Father John's Medicine, the guaranteed cure for throat and lungs. Now he is able to return to work after two years' illness, and he gives all the credit to Father John's Medicine.

As a body builder Father John's Medicine has no equal. No alcohol or injurious drugs. Guaranteed.

TO CLEAN THE BLOOD

Try This Home-made Mixture Which is Easily Prepared

GIVES SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

Relieves All Forms of Blood Disorders by Restoring Proper Action of the Kidneys—Cures Rheumatism of Many Years' Standing.

All medical authorities are agreed that the blood is the great source of disease or of health in the human system. If the blood is pure, the individual is strong and healthy, if the blood is impure or diseased then there is sickness or decay in the whole system. Rheumatism is strictly a blood disease. It is caused by excessive uric acid. Sores, pimples, etc., mean bad blood. Catarrhal affections must be treated through the blood to get permanent results. To get well, to feel strong, hearty and vigorous one must have good clean blood and lots of it. You can't clean the blood thoroughly unless the kidneys are made active. Bad blood means clogged, inactive kidneys and liver, which causes, too, such symptoms as backache, nervousness, bladder and urinary difficulties and other sympathetic troubles.

Here is a simple home remedy and the prescription for making it up is as follows:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at small cost.

Here the readers of this paper have a simple yet powerful and effective remedy for all forms of blood, kidney and bladder diseases, which should relieve rheumatism and catarrhal affections and replace the weak, nervous, indolent feeling with strength, vigor and health. This prescription is considered a fine system renovator and being made of vegetable extracts only is harmless and anyone can mix it at home. Try this, anyway, before investing in the secret unknown concoctions of the patent medicine manufacturers.

WALKER MAY BE FORGER AS WELL AS A DEFAULTER.

New Charge Against Absconding Banker of New Britain.

Hartford, Conn., March 9.—That William F. Walker, the defaulting treasurer of the Savings Bank of New Britain, is also a forger to the extent of several thousand dollars is now asserted, and the grand jury at its session next Tuesday will consider this charge.

The state attorney says he is in possession of evidence tending to show that Walker forged notes payable to himself as treasurer of the Connecticut Baptist convention, and by so doing had been able to cover up his stealings for several years.

BRIDGE WHIST WON THE AMIR.

Learned Game in India, and Now His Courtiers Must Play With Him.

Calcutta, March 9.—After more than a two months' visit to India, the amir of Afghanistan, Habibullah Khan, has recrossed the frontier into his own country and has started for Kabul, his capital. His majesty unmistakably enjoyed every day of his stay in India. He was for the first time officially designated "your majesty" in a telegram of welcome from King Edward when the amir entered India, which is regarded here as significant.

The amir during his stay went up in balloons because a keen motorist, as a result of which he has taken several automobiles back to Afghanistan with him; developed an immense liking for playing bridge whist, and made the Afghan courtiers learn the game so that he could play it at Kabul.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

John Howard Fell While at Work in Rutland.

Rutland, March 9.—John Howard, who was employed on the Mead block, while working on the first floor of the building yesterday, fell to the cellar, a distance of about 15 feet. Mr. Howard was pushing a wheelbarrow and fell through an opening in the floor. He was removed to his home on West street in Cabot & Spencer's ambulance.

Late in the afternoon it was reported that Mr. Howard's condition was more serious than was at first thought. A concussion of the brain was feared. He was only rational a part of the time during the latter part of the day. Mr. Howard's wife died about a year ago. Her loss has affected his mind and it is feared for this reason that his injuries may prove fatal. He was taken to the hospital.

FRENCH CRISIS POSSIBLE.

The Government May Lose on Rest Day Law.

Paris, March 9.—The discussion of the interpretation of the rest-day law were resumed in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday under circumstances unfavorable to the government. M. Viviani, the minister of labor, having refused to accept a motion drafted by ex-Foreign Minister Delcasse, in behalf of all the Republican groups excepting the Independent Socialists favoring the introduction of modifications of the law, the principle of which was generally accepted. The debate was opened by M. Poincaré, Radical Socialist. If the cabinet supports M. Viviani, and is outvoted, the result will be a ministerial crisis.

LOW RATE ON LAND RIGHTS

Glass of Beer Sometimes Only Consideration

PART OF EVIDENCE AT TRIAL

Others Were Paid One Dollar Premium—Men Fell Over Each Other in Their Haste to Get the Dollar.

Washington, March 9.—In apparent determination to get before the jury every detail of the land frauds conspiracy in Oregon, District Attorney Daniel Barker, in the trial of ex-Representative Binger Hermann in criminal court no. 1, subjected George Sorrenson, a former land speculator, of Portland, to a running fire of questions which drew from him a full admission of the part he played in the manipulation of the school lands of that state incident to the creation of the Blue Mountain forest reserve. Sorrenson has been convicted in Oregon for participation in the frauds, and his testimony, dealing in the main with a series of conversations he had with Franklin P. May, another alleged member of the clique, served to bring Binger Hermann's name into even more intimate connection with the alleged conspiracy.

Evidence secured from Henry Mel-drum, the convicted former surveyor general of Oregon, served to the satisfaction of the government in the present trial to indicate the intimacy existing between May and Hermann. Sorrenson, after admitting that he had acquired nearly 12,000 acres of school lands within the boundaries of the Blue Mountain reserve, said that May compelled him to relinquish a portion of his holdings "so that Binger Hermann, Senator Mitchell and others might be cared for." Describing the method of securing such a vast expanse of land, the witness said many men had "signed away their rights" to him for no greater consideration than a glass of beer. To others he paid an average of $1 each. Sorrenson declared that men almost fell over each other in haste to get the dollar premiums for signing their names to applications for half sections of school lands of 320 acres each.

Speaking of another forest reserve land scheme, Sorrenson said he had employed Senator Mitchell as his attorney and promised him a fee of $500 if he would get through the interior department the plan to extend the Cascade reserve. He said that the senator wrote a letter to Binger Hermann, then commissioner of the general land office, and received a reply. There was a spirit of collusion between the district attorney and counsel for Hermann before the witness was permitted to state the contents of the Hermann letter. Representative Mondell of Wyoming declared the defendant's letter to be of the best. Mr. Mondell was assistant commissioner of the land office from November, 1897, to March 3, 1899, and he testified that he too kept "personal" letter books, which he removed to his home when he retired from the department.

CENTRAL VERMONT A TARGET.

Protest Against Passenger and Freight Service in Connecticut.

Hartford, Conn., March 9.—At the hearing which was held before the railroad commission on November 1, 1906, the defective service upon the Central Vermont system in Connecticut, a strong protest was made against existing conditions. Numerous persons appeared in complaint of the poor passenger accommodations and the constant lateness of the trains. Shippers complained of the dilatory freight service and of the fact that an embargo has recently been placed on freight received from other roads at junction points and consigned to localities on the Central Vermont line. The officials of the railroad explained the conditions which the company just now have to contend with, and expressed a desire and a determination to remedy both the passenger and the freight service.

TRANSIT QUERY FOR GOTHAM?

To Be Forced Should Public Utilities Bill Be Killed by Corruption.

Albany, N. Y., March 9.—The activity on a certain agent of the Belmont-Ryan representative here yesterday produced a new development.
